

Professor Viviane de Beaufort
Professor in European and Comparative Law
ESSEC-MBA

Education: Doctorate and Master's Degree, European Community Law, University of Paris I - La Sorbonne. Bachelor's Degree in Political Science, University of Paris X. Center for European Studies degree, University of Paris I - La Sorbonne.

Research Areas: European Community Law and Institutional Issues, Company and Law Mergers and Acquisitions in the European Community.

Professional Experience: Department Chair, Law Department, ESSEC Business School- Paris. Founder and co-coordinator of the DESUP "Europe" University of Paris I. Consultant for several organizations, including: the French Accountant's Organization, the French Agency for Business Creation and Development (ANCE), a for-profit executive education center, Air Liquide-Alphagaz. In Groupe des Belles Feuilles Former legal consultant for the European Commission and European affairs of french Minister

Memberships: Honorary President of the European association "Groupe des Belles Feuilles." Member of the editorial committee of the "Année européenne." Member of the French associations: European Perspectives, Center for Study and Research on Europe (CEDECE - France, ECSA-Europe), Independant Commission for the Comprehensive Review of Institutions and Procedures of the Union (ICRI), Confrontation.

Consulting & Other Activities: Consultant for the Constantin Group, Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations, FINAFIX, ANTICIPA.