

CURRICULUM VITAE

An International Business Lawyer with significant experience in Shipping and Tourism, Vivian Patkos is a Senior Partner at “Law Offices of Patkos & Partners” and member of Athens Bar Association since 1989, owner of Le CONVIVIAL Ltd., and incoming tourism expert lawyer and business coordinator.

Fields of

Experience: Business and International Law, Contracts, Shipping Law, Tourism Law and Telecom Law

Education: Athens Law School, Greece (1979-1985)

Law Degree

New York University, New York, USA / UN (1985-1987)

MPA, Master’s in Comparative Public Administration and International Organizations.

Internship in the United Nations

Universite Paris I, Sorbonne, France (1988-1991)

Doctorat d’Etat Studies in Law Administration of the Telecommunications

Yale Law School (1989)

Research Assistant in Human Rights Department Independent projects.

Professional

Status:

- Member of Athens Bar Association since 1989
- Senior Partner at the “Law Offices of Patkos & Partners” since 1995. Shipping, Tourism and Real Estate.
- Incoming tourism expert lawyer and business coordinator.
- Attorney-at-Law and Consultant to the President of Athens 2004 Olympic Games, responsible for the national and international sponsors, the contract management system and the cruise hospitality program of the Olympic Games.
- In-house Lawyer and Consultant to the general management of the Greek Telecom Organization in the First New York Stock Exchange Listing of a Greek company.

- Inmarsat Bureau and ICO Global Regulations Committee – Member of the Legal Experts for the Restructuring of Inmarsat – Regional Representative in the Regulatory Committee.
- United Nations in the USA Headquarters
- Greek ENA (Ecole National d' Administration) Lecturer in Comparative Administration

Languages: English, French, German, Italian, Bahasa Indonesia (basics)