News

- Starting from May 6th, ATINER will begin organizing its Annual International Meetings, coordinated by the 7 divisions and 37 units. This marks the first post-pandemic year where only onsite presentations will be accepted. However, exceptions will be made for circumstances, such as visa rejection or other significant objective reasons (e.g., inability to travel due to health reasons, parental leave, natural disasters, war), where remote presentations may be permitted.
- ATINER is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. George Zahariadis as Director of ATINER's Health & Medical Sciences Division. Dr. Zahariadis is an Associate Professor, Departments of Laboratory Medicine and Faculty of Medicine, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Canada. He is also the Director of the Provincial Public Health laboratory and the Chief of the Eastern Health Microbiology Services.
- Professor Hasan Baktir (Erciyes University, Turkey) has joined as a new academic member in the History Unit, the Literature Unit and the Center for European & Mediterranean Affairs (CEMA).
- Professor Alba Maria (Telematic University Giustino Fortunato-Benevento, Italy) has joined as a new academic member in the Accounting Unit, the Management Unit and the Center for Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises (CSME).
