Call for Participants - Theorizing Communication in, of, and from the Balkans

The inaugural virtual summer intensive on Theorizing Communication in, of, and from the Balkans will take place on May 27-28, 2026. Scholars and practitioners at all career levels are invited to participate.

The program will offer opportunities to explore borderlands and culture-centered theorizing, and to envision future research and applied collaborations. The initiative aims to foster a multinational, interdisciplinary, and intercultural scholarly community focused on communication in the Balkan region.

Participants from any academic background who are actively engaged in analyzing, creating, or theorizing from Balkan (Southeastern European) perspectives and experiences are welcome.

For more information and application instructions (deadline: January 20, 2026), see the attached document or contact Dr. Lily Herakova at liliana.herakova@maine.edu
