PRESS RELEASE

RE: 10th Annual International Conference on Mediterranean Studies, 10-13 April 2017, Athens, Greece

The Athens Institute for Education and Research organizes its 10th Annual International Conference on Mediterranean Studies, on Monday 10 April 2017 and Tuesday 11 April 2017, at the Titania Hotel (52 Panepistimiou Street), Athens, Greece.

The opening speech and the welcome remarks of the conference will take place on Monday 10 April 2017 at 8:30 a.m. and will be given by Dr Gregory T. Papanikos, President of the Institute and Honorary Professor, University of Stirling, UK.

During the two days of the conferences, 44 papers will be presented by 52 participants from 22 different countries (Albania, Algeria, Croatia, Cyprus, Denmark, Egypt, France, Iraq, Italy, Japan, Latvia, Libya, New Zealand, Oman, Portugal, Qatar, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, Turkey, UK and USA). The conference's program is available on: <https://www.atiner.gr/2017/2017PRO-MDT.pdf>. All papers are presented in English without interpretation.

The Institute was established in 1995 as an independent, global, member-based association of academics and researchers. Its mission is to act as a forum where academics and researchers from all over the world can meet to exchange ideas on their research and discuss the future developments in their disciplines. Athens was chosen as the meeting place because of its long history and culture.

In 2017, ATINER will organize more than 100 annual international conferences and other events. About 3000 professors and other researchers from more than 100 countries combined participate in all these events. All conferences take place on an annual base and always in Athens. The list of upcoming 2017 conferences is available at: <https://www.atiner.gr/2017Conferences>.
